Thanks to all the Minyannaires from Sha'ar Shalom, Chevra Mishnayis and Young Israel who took part in morning and evening services, and helped Dave and his family through this difficult time which included also the passing of his beloved brother Sydney Z"L 1 week ago. YASHIR KOACH to all!!!

Welcome: a) WELCOME back to Rabbi Banon and his family from a much deserved family vacation and we hope a good rest, since he won't have too much of a rest in the next few weeks as he prepares for the High Holidays. Yossi and the Gabbaim did a good job in your absence Rabbi, but nevertheless great to have you back. b) WELCOME to Michael Abitbol who has not been to shul in quite some time due to ill health; we wish him good health and hope to see him in shul more frequently. c) An in absentia WELCOME BACK as YIC members to Daisy & Chuck Millman who renewed their membership in the YIC after moving to CstL. We miss you guys in our shul, especially one guy who used to get a back-rub from Chuck on a regular basis.

Yashir Koach: A huge YASHIR KOACH to Norman Fogel for editing and Ed Braiter for the typesetting in producing a beautiful Rosh Hashana bulletin. Norman did an amazing job in getting it done on time – MAZAL TOV! It will most likely be posted to our new website later this week. Those with no email access will receive it in the mail. A davening and candle-lighting schedule will also be available in shul on the 1st day of Rosh Hashana.

Minyans: For those of you not in shul yesterday evening, you missed a beautiful service. We had 24 people celebrating Erev Shabbat, and our singing almost brought the rafters down. That's what makes it all worthwhile for all those who participate and volunteer.

New Website: Our new website will probably go live late this week, or latest early next week. You will all receive a special newsletter how to access the website, and how to access it's various links. It will be extremely easy. The newsletter tonight will most likely be the last one you receive by email. From now on, once I post the newsletter to the website at around midnight Sat night every week – you will all be able to access it. There will obviously be some bugs in the first few weeks, but that should not pose a problem. If you have problems, or have suggestions on how to improve the website, please let me know at info@judaicasales.com

Birthdays: MAZAL TOV to Elie Tylbor, who is celebrating a birthday on Thursday Sept. 14th. Ad 120!

Regards: Warmest regards from Sheila and Gersh Madan, our long time YIC members now representing our interests in Toronto. They want to make sure we don't forget them. We won't Gersh!!! Just let everyone in Toronto and environs know they have a HEIMISHE shul to go to when they come to visit friends and relatives in bustling downtown Chomedey.

Seat Sales: We are basically entering our last full week of seat sales. The rows and seats have already been numbered, and final seat allocations are just about completed. Everyone will be advised of their seat locations by email or phone, and a listing will be posted on both the men's and women's sections for all to see. Any changes and you will be advised. This is a new hall – we started from scratch, with both hall, seat and entrance limitations. A number of people have worked extremely hard putting in full days in shul to prepare the hall for the holidays - for you!! Please bear with us if there are a few mistakes here and there, and advise the exec discreetly so we can remedy any mistakes made. We will have people to help and guide you! Thank you!

Honours list: Every year, our President Emeritus Nat Yacower allocated the Honours List for Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur. Due to ill health, he cannot do it this year. So our worthy Gabbaim are doing their best to prepare the Honours list for those attending services. It cannot be completed of course, until almost all sold seats are allocated. Here too, you will be contacted by phone with the Honours allocated, and the approximate time to be in shul. Please make sure you are in shul at least 15 minutes before the allocated time, otherwise the Gabbaim will re-allocate the honours to those that are present. Thanks for your understanding.
