Kiddish Sat Oct 28: Today's beautiful Kiddish was sponsored by the shul, in honour of our Gabbai Naphtali Shainbach, who will be leaving us shortly. It was nice to see the entire Shainbach family including wife Debbie, his son Ariel with his wife Jordana and the baby boys, daughters Yardena and her fiancé Tobin, and daughter Lea, all celebrating with us. The Rabbi spoke of his first encounter at 13 years old with "that man in the moustache" at the Young Israel. Full circle – that 13 year old boy is now our Rabbi Banon, and "that man in the moustache" is still our Gabbai Naphtali – for a little while longer. The Rabbi spoke glowingly of his relationship over the ensuing years with Naphtali and literally echoed everyone's feelings for Naphtali. Issie Baum also said a few words about Naphtali and presented him with gifts on behalf of the Young Israel. At the request of some members whose wives could not attend to day, the text of that speech is reproduced at the end of this newsletter. (After the Rabbi's invitation)

Rabbi's Class: The Rabbi's class this week is cancelled.

Rabbi Halperin's class: Rabbi Halperin's bi-weekly class resumes this week on Tuesday Oct 31. The format will be a little different, with teaching 1st hr. & 30 min. of discussion about Halachic/Jewish questions. This class is sponsored by Chevra Mishnayis members.

Welcome: a) Welcome to the Shainbach family who are here in numbers as we all honour our Gabbai Naphtali prior to his move to the other side; b) and a welcome to Simmy Grabina who is back after a 2-3 week absence from suffering the after-effects of a bad cold. c) And welcome back to Yossi, our Hazzan Sheni after a week's holiday down South.

Special Regards: From Gersh Madan, our member in Toronto who had a long conversation this week with Dave Apfelbaum in which he recounted how much he misses the shul in the 5 months since his move and wants to extend his best regards to all. We're ready for a visi, Gersh.

Special Invitation: Please scroll down to the end for a personal invitation from Rabbi Banon and Rebbetzin Rochel to a special Erev-Shabbos candle Lighting ceremony for his daughter Esther who turns 3 years old.

The Rabbi and Rebbetzin Rochel and the entire Banon Family are pleased to invite members of the Young Israel of Chomedey and Shaar Shalom to a Special Candle-Lighting Ceremony, where their daughter Esther will light Shabbas Candles for the very first time. This beautiful event will take place on Friday Nov 3rd, at 4:30 PM. The Program will begin at 4:45 PM sharp, followed by Candle Lighting before 5:21 PM. We will proceed with Mincha and Kabbalat Shabbat services, after which we will all be treated to a buffet-dinner in the social hall.
