Rabbi Banon's Class: The Rabbi's weekly class this week, will take place on Thursday, Oct 25 at 6:15 PM after evening services

Liquor Donations: a) A bottle was donated in honour of Bernice & Harry Chyfetz in honour of Bernice's birthday today, Shabbat - October 20, as well as their daughter Karen's birthday, Sunday, October 21. May they both celebrate many more happy and healthy birthdays together with their families. MAZAL TOV ad 120!

Yahrzeits: We will have services this week on Wednesday Oct 24 at 7 AM which is the 15th of Cheshvan, as Danny Tansky has Yahrzeit for his beloved mother, Bella Z"L. Please make every effort to attend, as well as evening services at 5:45 PM Tuesday evening and on Wednesday at 5:45 PM the same day.

Mazal Tov: To Rabbi Banon's Family, and especially his brother Mendel and his wife Esther, on the occasion of the Bat Mitzvah of their eldest daughter Perla Rochel which took place this past Tuesday in Florida. Rebbetzin Rochel together with Hannah Leah and Esther were on a whirlwind 2-day trip to Florida to take part in the Simcha, ken yirbu - and Rabbi Avram took on the job of babysitter. Fair deal! MAZAL TOV again, with many simchas to come B"H.

Birthdays: HAPPY 9th BIRTHDAY to "T.K." Tyrell Kingsley Green, VP Dave Green's grandson who celebrated his special day on Friday Oct 19th. MAZAL TOV to the families and lots of naches.

Welcome Back: a) A WELCOME BACK to my dear wife Zila from Israel, an unexpected trip when she was informed that her beloved mother Bruria Z"l passed away on Erev Sukkot at 96 years of age. It has been a stressful few weeks, and needless to say, I am delighted to have her back. b) A warm welcome also to Rabbi Banon's nephew from Florida, Shalom Bruk, who is studying at a Yeshiva here in Montreal this year, and joined us for this Shabbat. Hopefully, he'll join us for many more Shabbatot.

Hanukkah: In exactly 6 weeks The Hanukkah Lights will soon be shining brightly, and they will shine even brighter on Sunday evening Dec 2, and on Saturday evening Dec 8. Keep these two dates open. On Sunday Dec 2, the Young Israel will host a beautiful Hanukkah reception for Young Israel and Shaar Shalom members and families, with hopefully lots of kids. Bring your grandchildren, and let's all enjoy together. And on Saturday Dec 8, the Young Israel and Shaar Shalom will host a gala dinner-dance party. All details for both events will be publicized this week in a special newsletter. Please, keep these dates open on your calendar.

Condolences: To the family of the late Julia Sculnick who passed away last week, and as well to the Midlash and Shadowiz Families, both of whose members are cousins of the Sculnick Family. All the Sculnicks were co-founders and heavily involved with the Young Israel in the early years, and contributed so much to the history and well-being of our shul.

"May the Family Know no Further Sorrows"

Refuah Shelma: a) A REFUAH SHLEMA to Irving Zwirek, who is in the hospital awaiting assessment on whether he will require a back operation or not. We wish him all the best. b) A REFUAH SHLEMA to Renee Greenstein who will be undergoing surgery on Oct 26th; c) A REFUAH SHLEMA to Hy Black who had pneumonia and is slowly getting better. d) A REFUAH SHLEMA to Bernie Peroff who will be having his second cataract operation this coming Tuesday, and we wish him a full recovery. e) and of course a REFUAH SHLEMA to all who are under the weather - and to all a speedy recovery.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION
The Parshah in a Nutshell

Parshat Vayeira
Genesis 18:1-22:24

Sacrifice of Isaac - Artist Unknown

G-d reveals Himself to Abraham three days after the first Jew's circumcision at age ninety-nine; but Abraham rushes off to prepare a meal for three guests who appear in the desert heat. One of the three—who are angels disguised as men—announces that, in exactly one year, the barren Sarah will give birth to a son. Sarah laughs.

Abraham pleads with G-d to spare the wicked city of Sodom. Two of the three disguised angels arrive in the doomed city, where Abraham's nephew Lot extends his hospitality to them and protects them from the evil intentions of a Sodomite mob. The two guests reveal that they have come to overturn the place, and to save Lot and his family. Lot's wife turns into a pillar of salt when she disobeys the command not to look back at the burning city as they flee.

While taking shelter in a cave, Lot's two daughters (believing that they and their father are the only ones left alive in the world) get their father drunk, lie with him and become pregnant. The two sons born from this incident father the nations of Moab and Ammon.

Abraham moves to Gerar, where the Philistine king Abimelech takes Sarah—who is presented as Abraham’s sister—to his palace. In a dream, G-d warns Abimelech that he will die unless he returns the woman to her husband. Abraham explains that he feared he would be killed over the beautiful Sarah.

G-d remembers His promise to Sarah, and gives her and Abraham a son, who is named Isaac (Yitzchak, meaning “will laugh”). Isaac is circumcised at the age of eight days; Abraham is one hundred years old, and Sarah ninety, at their child’s birth.

Hagar and Ishmael are banished from Abraham’s home and wander in the desert; G-d hears the cry of the dying lad, and saves his life by showing his mother a well. Abimelech makes a treaty with Abraham at Beersheba, where Abraham gives him seven sheep as a sign of their truce.

G-d tests Abraham’s devotion by commanding him to sacrifice Isaac on Mount Moriah (the Temple Mount) in Jerusalem. Isaac is bound and placed on the altar, and Abraham raises the knife to slaughter his son. A voice from heaven calls to stop him; a ram, caught in the undergrowth by its horns, is offered in Isaac’s place. Abraham receives the news of the birth of a daughter, Rebecca, to his nephew Bethuel.
