Liquor Donations: A bottle was donated by Gina & Norman Fogel to give thanks to Hashem for the successful conclusion of all of Gina's medical treatments and continued health in the future.

Rabbi Banon's Class: There will be no Rabbi's class this week.

Condolences: The YIC extends its condolences to long-time YIC members Abe & Mary Kirschner, whose son John passed away in Denver, on Thursday, November 8, 2018. John was the devoted husband of Lauren for thirty-six years, as well as being a beloved father and father-in-law of Jordan, Adam and Callan, and proud grandfather of Elena. He also leaves behind his cherished brothers and sisters-in-law, Harry and Diane Kirschner, Jack and Geri Kirschner; and brother-in-law of Todd and Jennifer Markus, Randy and Shari Markus. John will be dearly missed by his family and friends. Funeral services took place on Thursday, November 15.

"May the Family Know no Further Sorrows"

Birthdays: a) Irving Zwirek turns 85 "biz hundert und tsvantsik" on Thursday, November 22nd; Irving was recently moved from the hospital to a rehab center in town, a sign that he is doing much better, and apparently will not need an operation, and so at the same time we wish him a HAPPY BIRTHDAY and a complete REFUAH SHLEMA as well. b) And also a HAPPY BIRTHDAY to a somewhat younger Sam Duchoeny who turns 51 on Friday, November 23rd, and we wish him all the best until the ripe old age of 120.

Refuah Shelma: A REFUAH SHLEMA to all members and family members undergoing various treatments of one sort or another - may you and we all be blessed with good health in the days, months and years to come.

IMAGES and VIDEOS

This video is 1hr 13m long. It features Caroline Glick, an American-born Israeli journalist, newspaper editor, and writer. She is the deputy managing editor of The Jerusalem Post, and also the Senior Fellow for Middle East Affairs of the Washington, DC-based Center for Security Policy. Well worth watching.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION
The Parshah in a Nutshell
Vayishlach

Genesis 32:4–36:43

Jacob returns to the Holy Land after a 20-year stay in Charan, and sends angel-emissaries to Esau in hope of a reconciliation, but his messengers report that his brother is on the warpath with 400 armed men. Jacob prepares for war, prays, and sends Esau a large gift (consisting of hundreds of heads of livestock) to appease him.

That night, Jacob ferries his family and possessions across the Jabbok River; he, however, remains behind and encounters the angel that embodies the spirit of Esau, with whom he wrestles until daybreak. Jacob suffers a dislocated hip but vanquishes the supernal creature, who bestows on him the name Israel, which means “he who prevails over the divine.”

Jacob and Esau meet, embrace and kiss, but part ways. Jacob purchases a plot of land near Shechem, whose crown prince—also called Shechem—abducts and rapes Jacob’s daughter Dinah. Dinah’s brothers Simeon and Levi avenge the deed by killing all male inhabitants of the city, after rendering them vulnerable by convincing them to circumcise themselves.

Jacob journeys on. Rachel dies while giving birth to her second son, Benjamin, and is buried in a roadside grave near Bethlehem. Reuben loses the birthright because he interferes with his father’s marital life. Jacob arrives in Hebron, to his father Isaac, who later dies at age 180. (Rebecca has passed away before Jacob’s arrival.)

Our Parshah concludes with a detailed account of Esau’s wives, children and grandchildren; the family histories of the people of Seir, among whom Esau settled; and a list of the eight kings who ruled Edom, the land of Esau’s and Seir’s descendants.
