PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION
The Parshah in a Nutshell

EMOR

Leviticus 21:1–24:23

The Torah section of Emor ("Speak") begins with the special laws pertaining to the kohanim ("priests"), the kohen gadol ("high priest"), and the Temple service: A kohen may not become ritually impure through contact with a dead body, save on the occasion of the death of a close relative. A kohen may not marry a divorcee, or a woman with a promiscuous past; a kohen gadol can marry only a virgin. A kohen with a physical deformity cannot serve in the Holy Temple, nor can a deformed animal be brought as an offering.

A newborn calf, lamb or kid must be left with its mother for seven days before being eligible for an offering; one may not slaughter an animal and its offspring on the same day.

The second part of Emor lists the annual Callings of Holiness—the festivals of the Jewish calendar: the weekly Shabbat; the bringing of the Passover offering on 14 Nissan; the seven-day Passover festival beginning on 15 Nissan; the bringing of the Omer offering from the first barley harvest on the second day of Passover, and the commencement, on that day, of the 49-day Counting of the Omer, culminating in the festival of Shavuot on the fiftieth day; a "remembrance of shofar blowing" on 1 Tishrei; a solemn fast day on 10 Tishrei; the Sukkot festival—during which we are to dwell in huts for seven days and take the "Four Kinds"—beginning on 15 Tishrei; and the immediately following holiday of the "eighth day" of Sukkot (Shemini Atzeret).

Next the Torah discusses the lighting of the menorah in the Temple, and the showbread (lechem hapanim) placed weekly on the table there.

Emor concludes with the incident of a man executed for blasphemy, and the penalties for murder (death) and for injuring one's fellow or destroying his property (monetary compensation).

MEMORY LANE # 21 (EDITED)
FROM THE BULLETIN OF THE YOUNG ISRAEL OF CHOMEDEY
APRIL 1963 EDITION

The elections of the Synagogue Executive will be held on or about June 5th, 1963. The Chairman of the nominating Committee is Morton S. Wexler.

Thanks to Menachem Lehrer and Morris Silverman three groups of the Junior Congregation have been formed. They are "Junior-Junior, Intermediate-Junior, and Senior-Junior.

Plans are now being finalized for the 2nd season of the Y's Urban Camp in Chomedey for this coming summer, Chairman Bud Kirmayer has announced. It will serve boys and girls from 5 to 12 for July and August. Each period will be of 4 weeks duration and will be held in the Synagogue and also Hillcrest School next door. A competent staff has again been hired comprised of Tzipie Coodin, Sylvia Farber, Ricki Lackman, and Mike Yarosky. In the first year over 300 boys and girls from 6 to 16 have actively participated in the weekly "Y" program at the Young Israel.

The club group of the teen division recently held a gala Purim Carnival for the community and over 500 people participated! A total of $ 126.50 was raised for the camp, the Shul Building Fund and the Red Cross. Because of the excellent response to this years program, our registration for the coming year has been filled very quickly. The "Y" is now making plans to double it's capacity for next year.

THE NEW CHAPEL

A number of plans have been collected, and a number of contractors have been interviewed. A number of different Chapels have also been visited. The final decision will be taken within a brief delay. Thanks to Morris Winer who is head of this important project.

THE CEMETERY

Our Congregation now owns our Cemetery at Mount Pleasant in Duvernay. We are now finalizing the Cemetery Constitution. Every Shul Member will be receiving a copy of the Constitution as soon as everything is in place.

(Yashor Koach to Fred Rudy for providing us all with these memorable historical moments, which some of us may still remember!)
