ELECTIONS: As you are all aware, elections were called for at our GA meeting to be held on June 23, 2019. Two candidates were vying for the presidency of our shul: Incumbent President Issie Baum, and candidate Yehuda Rappaport.

During the past 10-12 days, during Issie's absence while on a month long holiday, a number of possible misunderstandings, irregularities and unnecessary threats and accusations surfaced which did not emanate from either candidate, and of which neither candidate was even aware.

Consequently, Issie Baum on his return from Florida on Tuesday May 28th, called Yehuda Rappaport and asked to meet with him to clarify the situation. Full disclosure - Yehuda and Issie have had a relationship that goes back some 30+ years, and have remained friends, with each respecting the other.

The meeting took place on Wednesday May 29th and lasted well over one hour. As a result of this meeting, and a complete clearing up of the misunderstandings and other problems indicated above, Yehuda Rappaport informed Issie that he will not run for the position of President of the Young Israel of Chomedey. However, he has indicated his desire and willingness to participate in and lend his expertise and his knowledge in working with and helping the Executive and the shul in any way that he can. That offer was welcomed by Issie, and right after our GA meeting on June 23rd, it is certain that Yehuda will find his place at the table in helping the Executive and the Board plan for the coming year and more into the future.

To avoid any further misunderstandings which may arise - possibly not coming from either candidate - both Issie and Yehuda have signed this email.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION
The Parshah in a Nutshell

Bamidbar

Numbers 1:1-4:20

In the Sinai Desert, G-d says to conduct a census of the twelve tribes of Israel. Moses counts 603,550 men of draftable age (20 to 60 years); the tribe of Levi, numbering 22,300 males age one month and older, is counted separately. The Levites are to serve in the Sanctuary, replacing the firstborn, whose number they approximated, who were disqualified when they participated in the worshipping of the Golden Calf. The 273 firstborn who lacked a Levite to replace them had to pay a five-shekel "ransom" to redeem themselves.

When the people broke camp, the three Levite clans dismantled and transported the Sanctuary, and reassembled it at the center of the next encampment. They then erected their own tents around it: the Kohathites, who carried the Sanctuary's vessels (the Ark, menorah, etc.) in their specially designed coverings on their shoulders, camped to its south; the Gershonites, in charge of its tapestries and roof coverings, to its west; and the families of Merari, who transported its wall panels and pillars, to its north. Before the Sanctuary's entranceway, to its east, were the tents of Moses, Aaron, and Aaron's sons.

Beyond the Levite circle, the twelve tribes camped in four groups of three tribes each. To the east were Judah (pop. 74,600), Issachar (54,400) and Zebulun (57,400); to the south, Reuben (46,500), Simeon (59,300) and Gad (45,650); to the west, Ephraim (40,500), Manasseh (32,200) and Benjamin (35,400); and to the north, Dan (62,700), Asher (41,500) and Naphtali (53,400). This formation was kept also while traveling. Each tribe had its own nassi (prince or leader), and its own flag with its tribal color and emblem.
